Ryan Habbena & Alan Kurschner

You are invited to join us for a weekend of declaring and defending the prewrath rapture of the church. Over the last two decades the prewrath position has advanced throughout both churches and Christian thought. In light of this, many arguments and Scriptures have been brought against the core tenets of this position. In this conference, prewrath writers Ryan Habbena and Alan Kurschner will present a wide-ranging defense of this understanding of the end times texts.

Convinced that the Scriptures teach that the church will one day encounter the persecution of the Antichrist, they will seek fortify this understanding through an earnest consideration of the arguments brought against this position and careful exposition of the word of God. This conference is free of charge and will be held at Conquering King Fellowship in Eagan, MN on March 18-19, 2011. A free-will offering will be taken.

Alan Kurschner is a writer and lecturer for the Prewrath Resource Institute. He holds a B.A. in Philosophy from the University of Wisconsin, Eau Claire and an M.A. in Biblical Languages from Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary.

Ryan Habbena is the director of Signet Ring Ministries and a pastor of preaching and teaching at Conquering King Fellowship in Eagan, MN. He has two degrees in Biblical and Theological Studies—B.A. Bethel University, M.A. Bethel Seminary (New Testament concentration). He is the author of the books The Pilgrim's Path, The Parable of the Fig Tree and Eternal Scars. Ryan has been married to Jenny for over 14 years and has three children—Bethany, Samuel and Elizabeth.
