Speakers

Ryan Habbena is the pastor of preaching and teaching at Conquering King Fellowship in St. Paul, Minnesota. He is also the director of Signet Ring Ministries, a biblical teaching and resource ministry. Ryan holds two degrees in biblical and theological studies — B.A. Bethel University, M.A. Bethel Seminary (New Testament Concentration). He is the author of "Eternal Scars", "The Parable of the Fig Tree" and the forthcoming "The Pilgrim's Path". He lives with his wife and three children just outside of St. Paul, Minnesota.

Charles Cooper is the pastor of The Vine in Orlando, Florida and the founder and director of the Prewrath Resource Institute. Charles graduated from Ouachita Baptist University in 1982 with a B.A. in Pastoral Ministries and a minor in Greek. He received a Master of Theology degree from Dallas Theological Seminary and taught homiletics and hermeneutics at the Moody Bible Institute for six years. For eight years he was an instructor, biblical researcher and education consultant for Sola Scriptura — an organization dedicated to affirming the authenticity, accuracy and authority of the Bible. Charles lives in Winter Garden, Florida and is the author of "God's Elect and the Great Tribulation" and "Fight, Flight, or Faith: How to Survive the Great Tribulation".

Alan Kurschner is a writer and lecturer for the Prewrath Resource Institute. He holds a B.A. in Philosophy from the University of Wisconsin, Eau Claire and an M.A. in Biblical Languages from Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary. Alan lives in Eau Claire, Wisconsin and is the author of the forthcoming book "A Case for the Prewrath Rapture".
